Daily Verses

Realizing the brevity of our mortal lifespan on this earth, David calls out to God to help him make his own life meaningful and worthy of God's plan, both here and for the life to come.

[a] Yehovah, reveal to me the end of my life and the number of my days. Let me know how short-lived I am. You, indeed, have made my days short in length, and my life span as nothing in Your sight. Yes, every mortal man is only a vapor.

Psalm 39:4-5

[b] Certainly, man walks about like a mere shadow. Indeed, they frantically rush around in vain, gathering possessions without knowing who will get them. Now, Lord, what do I wait for? My hope is in You.

Psalm 39:6-7

[c] Hear my prayer, Yehovah, and listen to my cry for help; do not be silent at my tears. For I am a foreigner residing with You, a temporary resident like all my fathers. Turn Your angry gaze from me so that I may be cheered up before I die and am gone.

Psalm 39:12-13

In my published Daily Verses, you will see the name “Yehovah” in place of the word “LORD” in OT passages.

CLICK HERE for an explanation of why I make that substitution and why I changed from “Yahweh” to “Yehovah.”

The Bible verses above are those selected for today for my daily posting on FACEBOOK and MYPRAIZE and TWITTER and PARLER.
